

WHITEPAPER – BABY MERUEM

The egg has cracked. The King is born. The kingdom awakens.

Prologue – The Rise of a Decentralized Monarch

A green star cuts through the darkness.

Inside a sacred egg... an heir to an empire.

Baby Meruem is not just another token — it's the beginning of a reign, a decentralized legend.

Every transaction fuels the throne.

Every holder becomes a noble of the new order.

Vision

Baby Meruem aims to enrich its kingdom — not just with hype, but with real strategy.

Each transaction brings value to holders, fuels burns, and empowers the community.

No broken promises. Just royal actions.

Tokenomics – Simple, Powerful, Royal

Total Supply: 420,000,000,000,000

Ownership: Renounced

Liquidity: Not locked (strategically managed for manual burns & kingdom events)

Tax	Percentage	Purpose
 Redistribution	1%	Automatically rewards all holders on each transaction.
 Burn	1%	Reduces supply, increases scarcity and token value over time.
 Liquidity	1%	Strengthens DEX trading and stabilizes price.

 Marketing / Dev 1%

Funds for promotion, growth, and future development.

 Royal Reserve 1%

For events, airdrops, or elite NFTs (phase 4).

Total Tax: 5% on both buys and sells

Roadmap – The King’s Path

Phase 1: Awakening

Website launch, storytelling, first noble holders

Phase 2: Expansion

Viral marketing, DEX listings, global vision

Phase 3: Strategic Deployment

Massive burns, community events, the rise of Adult Meruem

Phase 4: Final Ascension

Launch of a utility token or elite NFT — accessible only to Baby Meruem holders

Why Baby Meruem?

 No fake promises

 No pump & dump

 Transparent tokenomics

 Strong identity

 A kingdom that rewards its loyal subjects

Final Words – The Throne Is Yours

The kingdom doesn’t open twice.

The first soldiers will become the first kings.

Baby Meruem is a legend to live — not to watch.
